ALL-COUNTY LETTER NO. 82-29

TO: ALL COUNTY WELFARE DIRECTORS

SUBJECT: FOSTER CARE INFORMATION SYSTEM - PHASE II ALLOCATION FOR APRIL -
JUNE 1982

REFERENCE: ALL-COUNTY LETTER NO. 81-111
ALL-COUNTY LETTER NO. 82-12

Chapter 1229 of the California Statutes of 1980 (formerly AB 3070) mandates county welfare and probation departments to report foster care information to the State Department of Social Services (DSS) in order to complete an inventory of all children in foster care and to establish an ongoing foster care information system.

All-County Letter No. 82-12, dated February 9, 1982, provided updated information regarding development and implementation of the Foster Care Information System (FCIS). This letter is to provide funding information for Phase II. Claiming instructions for Phase II will be provided under a separate cover.

A total of $371,387 has been identified for FCIS-Phase II implementation cost for both 1981/82 and 1982/83. Of that total, $181,168 is available for costs incurred during April-June 1982. Funding for July-September 1982 is contained in the proposed budget for 1982/83. Counties will receive an allocation of the amount appropriated for this purpose after the Budget Act of 1982 is passed.

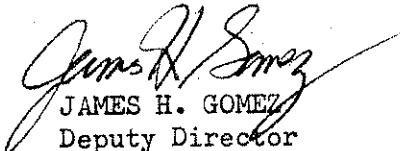

The Phase I allocation provided in All-County Letter No. 81-111 has been combined with the Phase II allocation for FY 1981/82 to allow flexibility in using any excess funds from either Phase I or Phase II to cover total combined costs incurred for both phases during FY 1981/82.

The allocation for the April-June 1982 period is based on the projected number of forms to be completed and corrected during this period multiplied by social services staff and support costs per hour.

A number of counties have not submitted the GEN 215A for Phase I expenditures. Counties are requested to forward the GEN 215A to the Department of Social Services, 744 P Street, Mail Station 8-100, Sacramento, CA 95814, as soon as possible.

Any questions concerning FCIS should be directed to Family and Children Services Systems Bureau at (916) 323-2923, claiming questions should be directed to Fiscal Policy and Procedures Bureau at (916) 445-7046. All questions regarding the allocation should be directed to County Administrative Expense Control Bureau at (916) 322-5802.

Sincerely,

JAMES H. GOMEZ
Deputy Director
Administration
